The Saddest Story in the Gospel

A man ran up and knelt before Jesus, and asked him, 'Good Teacher, what must I do to inherit everlasting life?' And Jesus said to him, '... You know the commandments: Do not kill, Do not commit adultery, Do not steal, Do not bear false witness, Do not defraud, Honor your father and mother.' Teacher, all these I have observed from my youth.' And Jesus looking upon him loved him, and said to him, 'You lack one thing: go, sell what you have, and give to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; and come, follow me.' At this saying his countenance fell, and he went away sorrowful; for he had great possessions.

There were no dry eyes this morning. That alone should tell you the effect this program has had on our men ... So many lives have been changed for the better. So many marriages have been turned around. So many addictions have been set aside ... I could go on and on ... It was evident they didn't want this moment to end.
